PART A

1. Invitation to Expression of Interest

National Handloom Development Corporation Ltd. (NHDC), a Government of India Undertaking under the Ministry of Textiles, invites Expressions of Interest (EOI) from reputed and experienced grassroot organizations/agencies for Empanelment of Mobilization and Facilitation Partners (MFPs) – 2nd Phase

2. About NHDC

National Handloom Development Corporation Ltd. (NHDC) is a Government of India Undertaking under the Ministry of Textiles, established in 1983 to strengthen and modernize India's handloom ecosystem. NHDC's core mandate is to address the entire handloom value chain and allied industries associated with it and make the handloom value chain more reliable, affordable and market-ready by ensuring timely access to inputs, design support and market linkages for weavers and producer institutions across the country.

Core Functions

- Raw Material Support: Aggregation and supply of yarns, dyes & chemicals to weavers, cooperatives and producer companies at competitive terms.
- Design, Quality & Productivity: Design development, sample creation, quality facilitation and productivity enhancement through cluster-based interventions.
- Market Access & Promotion: Buyer–seller linkages, exhibitions, institutional procurement facilitation and support for domestic and export markets.
- Capacity Building: Training, skilling, and entrepreneurship support in collaboration with national/state agencies, design institutes and sector skill councils.
- Digital & Traceability Initiatives: Enablement of e-commerce integrations, cataloguing and emerging traceability solutions to enhance consumer trust and GI visibility.
- Policy & Scheme Implementation: Execution support to flagship Ministry of Textiles programmes and convergence with allied government initiatives.

Aligned with the objectives of NHDC, the outreach initiative has been initiated to implement grassroots interventions focused on community mobilization, capacity building and thematic support. The initiative aims to enhance the scalability of handloom sector by fostering collective production models and sustainable value chains; improve quality through design innovation, technical training, and standardization; and drive innovation by integrating modern tools, market intelligence and technology-enabled solutions. Together, these efforts are designed to build a resilient ecosystem that empowers weavers, strengthens traditional clusters and positions Indian handlooms as globally competitive, sustainable and culturally rich products.

To strengthen these efforts, NHDC invites EOIs from eligible organizations for empanelment as Mobilization and Facilitation Partners (MFPs).

Objectives of Empanelment

- To build a reliable cadre of partner organizations that can mobilize weavers and artisans on-ground.
- To provide support for implementation of NHDC projects at the state, regional and cluster levels.
- To facilitate training, weaver onboarding and market access initiatives.

3. Scope of Work

Empanelled MFPs will:

1. Mobilize and identify handloom clusters, weavers, SHGs, Producer Companies and cooperatives.
2. Create awareness on government schemes, training programs and scheme benefits under NHDC, DC HL and MoT.
3. Facilitate cluster development
4. Assist in data collection and baseline surveys and need based activities
5. Support in skill development training initiatives and design interventions for weavers
6. Provide market linkage facilitation, including participation in exhibitions and e-commerce onboarding.
7. Promote sustainability practices such as natural dyes, eco-friendly looms, and zero-waste production.
8. Assist NHDC in project execution, including monitoring, reporting and social audits.
